Jesus in the garden, newly risen from the dead, who stood by weeping Mary, and who heard the words she said as if you were the gardener, till at last your shepherd's voice called her 'Mary' and with one word gave her reason to rejoice, Jesus in the garden, ever new but still the same, help me recognise you in the speaking of my name.

Jesus on the journey, fellow traveller on the road, who met two sad disciples, walking with them as you showed the meaning of the scriptures that predicted you would rise, but only when you blessed the meal could they believe their eyes.

Jesus on the journey, meet me where my hopes have fled, help me recognise you in the breaking of the bread.

Jesus in the locked room, breaking through despair and doubt, who comforted your friends when they had shut the whole world out, who came again for Thomas, and revealed your hands and side so that he could touch and know you as alive, though you had died.

Jesus in the locked room, breaking through our self-built bars, help me recognise you in the touching of your scars.

Jesus on the shoreline, cooking breakfast for your friends, who offered guilty Peter one more chance to make amends, who filled a net with fish for him, and helped him to recall the first catch that convinced him to respond to your first call.

Jesus on the shoreline, know my best, forgive my worst, help me recognise you in the way I met you first.

Prayers list

Dear Father,
Prepare our hearts for Easter, to celebrate the risen Jesus, alive and glorified from the grave, victorious over sin and death, living forevermore and giving us the promise of eternal life with You.
Thank you that because Jesus conquered death, we will rise, too, to live with You eternally.
Fill our hearts, O Lord, with joy as we worship
You, for Your unfailing love and for making a way through Jesus to redeem us as Your own, giving us life everlasting.
Embolden us to share this Good News with those who do not know You, so that they might, too, never die and be alive in Christ.
In Jesus' name,

Amen.

Focus on our Corps community:

Thank you to all of you who have used your ministry over this time of Lent, Holy week and Easter; through discussion groups, the use of music ministry, giving out Easter eggs, talking to people on the streets or your neighbors and sharing the good news of Jesus.

Note that this week, commencing the 5th apart from prayer meeting there is no community program, everything restarts week commencing 12th April.
